C/A No. 3:14-456-MGL-SVH

CONFIDENTIALITY ORDER AND PROTECTIVE ORDER PURSUANT TO FRE
502(D) AND (E)

Whereas, the parties to this Consent Confidentiality Order (“parties”), have stipulated that certain discovery material is and should be treated as confidential, and have agreed to the terms of this order; accordingly, it is this 25th day of June, 2015, ORDERED:

1. Scope. All documents produced in the course of discovery, all responses to discovery requests and all deposition testimony and deposition exhibits and any other materials which may be subject to discovery (hereinafter collectively “documents”) shall be subject to this Order concerning confidential information as set forth below.

2. Form and Timing of Designation. Confidential documents shall be so designated by placing or affixing the word “CONFIDENTIAL” on the document in a manner which will not interfere with the legibility of the document and which will permit complete removal of the Confidential designation. Documents shall be designated CONFIDENTIAL prior to, or contemporaneously with, the production or disclosure of the documents. Inadvertent or unintentional production of documents without prior designation as confidential shall not be deemed a waiver, in whole or in part, of the right to designate documents as confidential as otherwise allowed by this Order.

3. Documents Which May be Designated Confidential. Any party may designate documents as confidential but only after review of the documents by an attorney¹ who has, in good faith, determined that the documents contain information protected from disclosure by statute, sensitive personal information, trade secrets, or confidential research, development, or commercial information. The certification shall be made concurrently with the disclosure of the documents, using the form attached hereto at Attachment A which shall be executed subject to the standards of Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Information or documents which are available in the public sector may not be designated as confidential.

4. Reading Room provisions deleted by consent.

5. Depositions. Portions of depositions shall be deemed confidential only if designated as such when the deposition is taken or within seven business days after receipt of the transcript. Such designation shall be specific as to the portions to be protected.

6. Protection of Confidential Material.

a. General Protections. Documents designated CONFIDENTIAL under this Order shall not be used or disclosed by the parties or counsel for the parties or any other persons identified below (§ 6.b.) for any purposes whatsoever other than preparing for and conducting the litigation in which the documents were disclosed (including any appeal of that litigation). The parties shall not disclose documents designated as confidential to putative class members not named as plaintiffs in putative class litigation unless and until one or more classes have been certified.

b. Limited Third Party Disclosures. The parties and counsel for the parties shall not disclose or permit the disclosure of any documents designated CONFIDENTIAL under the terms of this Order to any other person or entity except as set forth in subparagraphs (1)-(5) below, and then only after the person to whom disclosure is to be made has executed an acknowledgment (in the form set forth at Attachment B hereto), that he or she has read and understands the terms of this Order and is bound by it. Subject to these requirements, the following categories of persons may be allowed to review documents which have been designated CONFIDENTIAL pursuant to this Order:

- (1) counsel and employees of counsel for the parties who have responsibility for the preparation and trial of the lawsuit;
- (2) parties and employees of a party to this Order but only to the extent counsel shall certify that the specifically named individual party or employee's assistance is necessary to the conduct of the litigation in which the information is disclosed²;
- (3) court reporters engaged for depositions and those persons, if any, specifically engaged for the limited purpose of making photocopies of documents;
- (4) consultants, investigators, or experts (hereinafter referred to collectively as "experts") employed by the parties or counsel for the parties to assist in the preparation and trial of the lawsuit; and
- (5) other persons only upon consent of the producing party or upon order of the court and on such conditions as are agreed to or ordered.

² At or prior to the time such party or employee completes his or her acknowledgment of review of this Order and agreement to be bound by it (Attachment B hereto), counsel shall complete a certification in the form shown at Attachment C hereto. Counsel shall retain the certification together with the form signed by the party or employee.

c. Control of Documents. Counsel for the parties shall take reasonable efforts to prevent unauthorized disclosure of documents designated as Confidential pursuant to the terms of this order. Counsel shall maintain a record of those persons, including employees of counsel, who have reviewed or been given access to the documents along with the originals of the forms signed by those persons acknowledging their obligations under this Order.

d. Copies. All copies, duplicates, extracts, summaries or descriptions (hereinafter referred to collectively as “copies”), of documents designated as Confidential under this Order or any portion of such a document, shall be immediately affixed with the designation “CONFIDENTIAL” if the word does not already appear on the copy. All such copies shall be afforded the full protection of this Order.

7. Filing of Confidential Materials. In the event a party seeks to file any material that is subject to protection under this Order with the court, that party shall take appropriate action to insure that the documents receive proper protection from public disclosure including: (1) filing a redacted document with the consent of the party who designated the document as confidential; (2) where appropriate (e.g. in relation to discovery and evidentiary motions), submitting the documents solely for in camera review; or (3) where the preceding measures are not adequate, seeking permission to file the document under seal pursuant to the procedural steps set forth in Local Civil Rule 5.03, DSC, or such other rule or procedure as may apply in the relevant jurisdiction. Absent extraordinary circumstances making prior consultation impractical or inappropriate, the party seeking to submit the document to the court shall first consult with counsel for the party who designated the document as confidential to determine if some measure less restrictive than filing the document under seal may serve to provide adequate protection. This duty exists irrespective of the duty to consult on the underlying motion. Nothing in this Order shall be construed as a prior directive to the Clerk of Court to allow any document be filed under seal. The parties understand that documents may be filed under seal only with the permission of the court after proper motion pursuant to Local Civil Rule 5.03.

8. Greater Protection of Specific Documents. No party may withhold information from discovery on the ground that it requires protection greater than that afforded by this Order unless the party moves for an Order providing such special protection.

9. Challenges to Designation as Confidential. Any CONFIDENTIAL designation is subject to challenge. The following procedures shall apply to any such challenge.

a. The burden of proving the necessity of a Confidential designation remains with the party asserting confidentiality.

b. A party who contends that documents designated CONFIDENTIAL are not entitled to confidential treatment shall give written notice to the party who affixed the designation of the specific basis for the challenge. The party who so designated the documents shall have fifteen (15) days from service of the written notice to determine if the dispute can be resolved without judicial intervention and, if not, to move for an Order confirming the Confidential designation.

c. Notwithstanding any challenge to the designation of documents as confidential, all material previously designated CONFIDENTIAL shall continue to be treated as subject to the full protections of this Order until one of the following occurs:

- (1) the party who claims that the documents are confidential withdraws such designation in writing;
- (2) the party who claims that the documents are confidential fails to move timely for an Order designating the documents as confidential as set forth in paragraph 9.b. above; or

(3) the court rules that the documents should no longer be designated as confidential information.

d. Challenges to the confidentiality of documents may be made at any time and are not waived by the failure to raise the challenge at the time of initial disclosure or designation.

10. Treatment on Conclusion of Litigation.

a. Order Remains in Effect. All provisions of this Order restricting the use of documents designated CONFIDENTIAL shall continue to be binding after the conclusion of the litigation unless otherwise agreed or ordered.

b. Return of CONFIDENTIAL Documents. Within thirty (30) days after the conclusion of the litigation, including conclusion of any appeal, all documents treated as confidential under this Order, including copies as defined above (¶6.d.) shall be returned to the producing party unless: (1) the document has been entered as evidence or filed (unless introduced or filed under seal); (2) the parties stipulate to destruction in lieu of return; or (3) as to documents containing the notations, summations, or other mental impressions of the receiving party, that party elects destruction. Notwithstanding the above requirements to return or destroy documents, counsel may retain attorney work product including an index which refers or relates to information designated CONFIDENTIAL so long as that work product does not duplicate verbatim substantial portions of the text of confidential documents. This work product continues to be Confidential under the terms of this Order. An attorney may use his or her work product in a subsequent litigation provided that its use does not disclose the confidential documents.

11. Order Subject to Modification. This Order shall be subject to modification on motion of any party or any other person who may show an adequate interest in the matter to intervene for purposes of addressing the scope and terms of this Order. The Order shall not, however, be modified until the parties shall have been given notice and an opportunity to be heard on the proposed modification.

12. No Judicial Determination. This Order is entered based on the representations and agreements of the parties and for the purpose of facilitating discovery. Nothing herein shall be construed or presented as a judicial determination that any specific document or item of information designated as CONFIDENTIAL by counsel is subject to protection under Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or otherwise until such time as a document-specific ruling shall have been made.

13. Persons Bound. This Order shall take effect when entered and shall be binding upon: (1) counsel who signed below and their respective law firms; and (2) their respective clients.

14. Non-Waiver of Attorney-Client Privilege and Work Product.

(A) Pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) and (e), no party to this litigation shall be deemed to have waived either the attorney-client privilege or the work product protection as a result of any disclosure connected with this proceeding, or any other federal or state proceeding, irrespective of the degree of care taken by the Producing Party (as defined infra) in (i) preventing disclosure, it being expressly recognized that the Producing Party is not obligated to engage in any pre-production review to identify information protected by the attorney-client privilege and/or the work product protection, though it may elect to do so; or (ii) rectifying disclosure, except that the Producing Party must comply with the provisions herein in seeking to claw-back any information protected by the attorney-client privilege and/or work-product protection. Accordingly, the provision of Fed. R. Evid. 502(b) shall not apply.

(B) A party producing information in response to any request for production pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 34, or a third-party producing information in response to a subpoena pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 45 (each a “Producing Party”), shall have no obligation to engage in a post-production review to determine whether it has produced any information protected from disclosure by either the attorney-client privilege and/or the work product protection (collectively, “Protected Information”). If a party discovers through any means that a Producing Party has produced Protected Information, then:

(i) where the Producing Party first discovers that it has produced Protected Information, the Producing Party shall promptly provide written notice to the party receiving information in response to any request for production pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 34 or Fed. R. Civ. P. 45 (the “Receiving Party”), which notice shall include a statement of the basis for the Producing Party’s contention that the information is privileged or protected; and

(ii) where the Receiving Party first discovers information that, in good faith, the Receiving Party believes the Producing Party may deem to be Protected Information, the Receiving Party shall promptly provide written notice to the Producing Party advising that the Producing Party may have produced Protected Information, which notice must expressly state that it is being given pursuant to this Order to be valid; and within thirty (30) days thereafter, the Producing Party shall provide written notice to the Receiving Party consistent in substance with the requirements of subparagraph (1) immediately above.

(C) Upon receiving written notice in accordance with these provisions, the Receiving Party shall promptly return or destroy the subject Protected Information and any copies that it has except and only insofar as may be necessary to enable the Receiving Party to present an application to the Court for a ruling concerning the claimed privilege. If the Receiving Party disclosed the subject Protected Information to any third party before receiving the requisite written notice from the Producing Party, the Receiving Party must: (i) take reasonable steps to retrieve any such Protected Information; and (ii) immediately advise the Producing Party of any instances in which the Receiving Party is unable to retrieve such Protected Information so that the Producing Party may take whatever steps it deems necessary to protect and/or retrieve its Protected Information.

(D) Within thirty (30) days of receiving written notice as described above, the Receiving Party may make an application to the Court, under seal, for a ruling concerning whether the subject Protected Information is protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege and/or work product protection. Consistent with the provisions herein, because the provisions of Fed. R. Evid. 502(b) shall not apply, any application contesting whether such Protected Information is protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege and/or the work product protection shall not be based on either: (i) whether the disclosure of such information was inadvertent; or (ii) the degree of care taken by the Producing Party to protect against or rectify the disclosure of such information. The Receiving Party shall not otherwise use or disclose any such Protected Information unless and until the Producing Party agrees or it is adjudicated that such Protected Information is not protected by the attorney-client privilege and/or work product protection. If the Court rules that the subject Protected Information is protected from disclosure, the Receiving Party shall promptly return or destroy all copies of the Protected Information. Absent a timely application by the Receiving Party contesting whether Protected Information is privileged and/or protected, the Protected Information shall be treated as privileged and/or protected, as the case may be, as if it had never been produced. The Producing Party must preserve the Protected Information until all disputes regarding the discoverability of the information have been resolved.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
